13. COTOPAXI VOLCANO + HACIENDA EXPERIENCE

Hit the road to the South of the Andes mountains. If the weather allows it, you can spot the Cotopaxi volcano. This beautiful snow-capped volcano is one of the highest active volcanoes in the world. The scenery is gorgeous, and during Humboldt's scientific visits, he called it the "Avenue of the Volcanoes." If conditions allow it, climb to the Jose F. Rivas refuge, located at 4,800 meters. It is a hike from the parking lot. You will visit the Cotopaxi National Park and walk around the Limpiopungo lagoon.

Enjoy a traditional Ecuadorian lunch and relax on a traditional farm close to the volcano.

Approximate Time: 8 hours

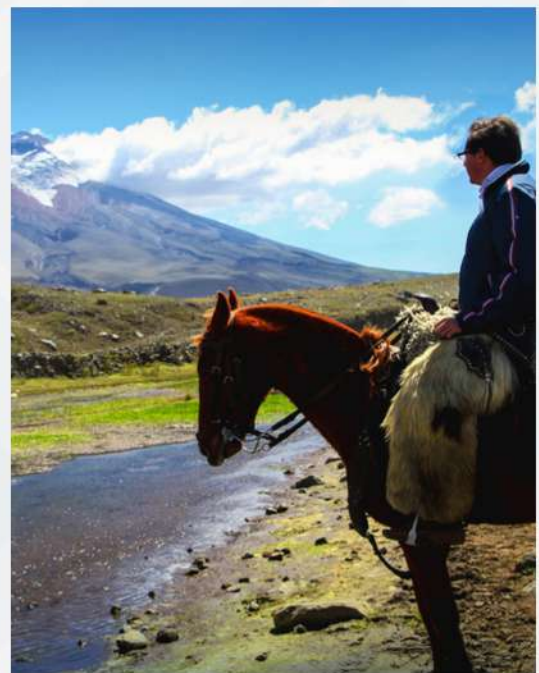

14. HACIENDA EXPERIENCE COTOPAXI

Nowadays, some traditional Andes Haciendas at the Cotopaxi foothills have turned into authentic hotels and restaurants. They are the ideal places to explore the Cotopaxi area and get to know the Andean way of life first-hand.

Here, you can enjoy a hike around the properties and grasp the beauty of the paramo vegetation. Other activities are available, like a typical horseback ride in the Andean mountains or a biking ride while admiring the natural forest. For those more adventurous, in one of the lodges, there's a High and Low Ropes course.
